Dear Parents/Carers,

The children have been delighted today by a surprise visit from Father Christmas!

Father Christmas has left each child a gift, which they will be bringing home with them today.

These gifts have been made possible due to a very generous community initiative to ensure that all of our children have a present to open on Christmas morning and perhaps ease financial pressures on families a little.

We would encourage these gifts to remain unopened until Christmas morning. If families don't celebrate Christmas at home, children have still been given a gift as we are all loved equally and we want all to share in the joys of the season.

Wishing all of our children and families a very Merry Christmas,

Best wishes,

Jen Ferretti
